KAPAA HONGWANJI BUDDHIST TEMPLE

December 2023

MESSAGE FROM THE BISHOP

At my first Hawaii Kyodan Board of Directors Meeting as the new Bishop in August, I requested that I would like to visit all the temples during the first year of my tenure. The purpose of my visit is to personally connect with the temple members and express my appreciation for their support and dedication to the HHMH. During the first five months as the Bishop, I was able to visit several temples on various occasions. I am very grateful for the ministers and temple leaders who kindly welcomed me to their temple Sangha.

I wish to share all of my experiences of these visits, but this time, I would like to write about my experience at Kohala Hongwanji Mission on the Big Island. I was invited to attend the Honokaa's Peace Parade on October 21. Since I have never been assigned to any of the Big Island temples, I thought this could be an excellent opportunity to experience the work of the Big Island ministers. So, I rented a car (they gave me a Dodge Challenger) and drove a total of 190 miles from Hilo to Kona. I joined the Honokaa Peace Parade and visited Paauilo Hongwanji on Saturday. The Kamuela Hongwanji Board members kindly prepared a delicious potluck dinner that evening. I officiated the Sunday Service at Kamuela Hongwanji Mission and then drove to Kohala Hongwanji Mission on Sunday.

After enjoying the beautiful Kohala Mountain Road, I was greeted by six temple members at Kohala Hongwanji (President Ms. Wendy Nickl). The temple building, which was dedicated in 1977, is beautifully maintained by the temple members. The altar design is unique, very simple with clean lines and geometric angles. There are special touches like a hidden sliding tray built into the altar. Along with some traditional altar ornaments and the statue of Amida Buddha, the tables and their special square gold wallpaper pieces were put up by Kohala members. The large hanging wooden wisteria carving on the front of the temple building was made by a plantation employee who was skilled in carving and woodwork. I was very moved to learn that many hands went into all aspects of the temple's construction.

I visited the Kohala Hongwanji Cemetery after that. I placed my hands together in Gassho in honor of those placed at the gravesite. I deciphered some of the aged gravestones that say, "Hiroshima-ken" and "Yamaguchi-ken" etc. They must be gravestones of the early immigrants from Japan who established the foundation of the Japanese-American community in Hawaii. They have left a lasting and positive impact on Hawaii, contributing to its economic development, cultural diversity, and social cohesion. I wondered if this place could be the closest gravesite to Japan, their home country, on the Big Island.

A visit to Kohala reminded me of the sacrifices, dedication, and contributions of our forefathers. In November, we observed Eitaikyo. Eitaikyo is often translated as the Sangha Memorial Service. It is the service to pay tribute to those who passed before us. They dedicated their lives and handed down the joy of the Nembutsu to us. Eitaikyo is a momentous occasion to thank our forefathers and then listen to the teaching, which is a gift from our forefathers. Our forefathers did not just leave a wonderful temple building for us. They also left us a wonderful place where we can feel, experience, and appreciate the warmth of life and the warmth of Namo Amida Butsu.

As recipients of Amida Buddha's Wisdom and Compassion, we have a responsibility, with a sense of gratitude and appreciation, to share such warmth of life (the joy of interdependence) with others. Let us together create a temple, a community where all people, regardless of their religious, ethnic, or cultural background, can assemble to receive guidance and inspiration, and realize that our lives are always illuminated, affirmed, and appreciated within the Compassionate Light of Amida Buddha.

ANNUAL APPRECIATION GATHERING FOR THE RETIRED MINISTERS AND THEIR SPOUSES

On November 1, 2023, Bishop Umitani and President Dr. Tamamoto hosted the annual appreciation luncheon for the retired ministers and their spouses. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we were not able to hold this gathering for the past three years. Bishop Umitani officiated over the opening service at the Honpa Hongwanji Hawaii Betsuin Hondo. During the service, the names of the ministers and their spouses who passed away during the past three years (14 individuals) were read, and the participants had a moment of silence in their memory. Bishop Umitani and President Dr. Warren Tamamoto expressed their sincere appreciation for the contributions that the retired ministers and their spouses made to the Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii and conveyed the appreciation that the current ministers have for their mentors and teachers. After the service, the retired ministers and their spouses gathered and enjoyed a beautiful bento meal at the Bishop’s Residence. It was an excellent time to reconnect with mentors and old friends.

TRIPLE CELEBRATION BUDDHIST EDUCATION SERIES

Honpa Hongwanji Mission of Hawaii Triple Celebration Committee has organized a Triple Celebration Buddhist Education Series to be held online throughout the year of 2024.

Topics in the education series align with the structure of the Kyogyoshinsho, a work written by Shinran Shonin in 1224 that was the basis for establishing the Jodo Shinshu Tradition. The Kyogyoshinsho shows the way of attaining enlightenment (sho) through reciting the Name of Amida Buddha (gyo) caused by entrusting heart (shin) which is taught in the Larger Sutra (Kyo).

The education series will consist of 4 main topics:

The Significance of the establishment of Jodo Shinshu Tradition

Essence of Kyogyoshinsho

Transmission of Jodo Shinshu from the past to present

The world is waiting for Buddhism and Shinran Shonin

The first two sessions are on Saturday, January 13 & Saturday, January 20 from 10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m. (Hawaii Standard Time). The featured speaker will be Dr. David Matsumoto of the Institute of Buddhist Studies, Berkeley. His lectures are “What is Mahayana Buddhism?” and “What is Pure Land Buddhism?”

The series will continue in February with two lectures, and then from March through August there will be one session per month. Please see the attached flyer for more details.

More information about individual sessions, including specific session flyers, is available on the Buddhist Study Center website.

Organizers hope the series will help participants relate the teachings to their lives, bring the Buddha’s wisdom to social issues, and inspire individual temples to hold Buddhism classes. The overarching goal is transforming people’s lives guided by Amida Buddha’s Primal Vow.

The sessions will be delivered online via Zoom. To receive the Zoom link, please register using this link: <https://forms.gle/kXbGaoyLyqKe2w629>

Temple Cleaning on Saturdays @ 7:00 a.m.

Please check the schedule in the Oneness for your group's date. Also altar flowers will continue as scheduled. Thank you so much for all your help.

We need more people to assist in temple cleaning. You may come on Saturday @ 7:00 a.m. to assist with cleaning. It usually takes an hour and we are done by 8:00 or 8:30 at the latest.

from the president's corner...

Aloha Everyone! Hope you are all well and ready to enjoy the holiday season. As the year 2023 comes to a close, we would like to express our deepest gratitude for your contribution as a volunteer as well as generous donations to support the temple with operational and maintenance expenses. We are truly grateful for your kindness, selfless giving and commitment.

Currently the Board of Directors has 5 members which is the minimum we can have as stated in the By-laws. We are having difficulty to recruit new directors and members to head various committees. We are doing our best to keep the temple functional and operating effectively. We have the same ten people who care and come out to assist with projects because they want our temple to continue to serve the members and community.

What is the importance of attending services? Have you attended a Sunday service or a major service? The Buddha, Dharma and Sangha are the three treasures. We need more participation and commitment to build a healthy Sangha.

Let us reflect on the past year and look forward to a brighter year with meaning, purpose and fulfillment in life. Namo Amida Butsu...

General Cleaning - Saturday, December 16, 2023 @ 7:30 a.m.

At the end of the year we schedule a day to clean the temple, parsonage screens/windows and surrounding areas. This year we do not have to clean the hall since it is being rented. This is your opportunity to lend a helping hand. Let's see more than the usual people showing up to assist. The more the merrier and the job will get done faster.

Kauai Buddhist Council Bodhi Day Service - Sunday, December 3 @ Lihue Hongwanji Mission

Each temple will need to be represented by 2 people offering flowers and incense. We will need to bring a vase for the flowers. Please let me know if you would like to offer the flowers and incense.

Kauai Hongwanji Council Officers - Kapaa Hongwanji will need to nominate the President, Secretary and Treasurer to serve on the Hongwanji Council for 2024-2026. We welcome you to serve as one of the officers. The only requirement is to be a dues paying member of our temple. The next meeting is on December 6, at 7:00 p.m. on Zoom. Please let me know if you are interested.

New Year's Eve Service - Sunday, December 31 @ TBD

Following the service, the Sangha will be ringing the kansho. It is the symbolic ringing away of the 108 passions which inflict man and bind him to the world of delusion.
